What is this booklet?

This notice tells you about changes to your policy which will take effect from your renewal date as shown on your schedule. Please ensure you read the changes carefully as they will form part of your contract of insurance and keep them together with your other policy documents.

Changes to your policy terms

The following table highlights key changes to your Aviva Zero Car Insurance.

For customers with a paper copy of the policy booklet:

Please read these changes in conjunction with your existing paper policy booklet. A new version of your booklet with all updates included is available in your Aviva Zero online account at zero.aviva.co.uk/account.

For online customers:

You can read these changes in your new policy booklet available in your Aviva Zero online account at zero.aviva.co.uk/account.

We have included some symbols to help you understand if the change is an increase or a decrease in cover or if it is just a clarification with no impact on your cover:

– Decrease in cover

+ Increase in cover

= Clarification only

		The most we will pay any one person after any accident or during any one period of insurance is shown in your schedule. If you, your partner or persons insured have any other policies with us in respect of any other car or cars, the injured person can only claim these benefits under one policy. The cover applies irrespective of fault. Optional – Increased Personal Accident cover The cover explained in this section only applies if it's shown in your schedule. • Additional benefit for death or serious injury If you, your partner or persons insured suffer death or serious injury as outlined in this Section, we will pay an additional benefit amount as shown in your schedule. • Physiotherapy cover for minor injuries This extension also provides physiotherapy cover for minor injuries for you, your partner or persons insured if they are injured as a direct result of your car being involved in an accident. We will refer you quickly to our experienced rehabilitation case management provider and will pay for treatment from a chartered physiotherapist we have appointed who believes treatment will help recovery. The most we will pay any one person after any accident is shown in your schedule. Physiotherapy will end once the rehabilitation case management provider and/or treating physiotherapist advises no further treatment is required, or the limit under this extension has been reached, whichever happens first. The cover applies irrespective of fault. Section 7. Personal Accident cover – exclusions We will not pay for death or bodily injury arising from: • suicide or attempted suicide. • you, your partner or persons insured not wearing a seatbelt.

The following table highlights some additional changes. It is only applicable where you have added optional Keycare cover to your Aviva Zero Car Insurance.

Change type	Keycare Policy booklet section	Changes
=	Definitions – What is covered	The wording of the ‘What is covered’ section has been updated. The below section has been added and reads as follows: 1. B) If an Insured Key has been stolen it must be reported to the police and a crime reference number obtained. Keycare cannot deal with Your claim for stolen keys until You have reported the theft to the police and confirmed the crime reference number to Keycare h) An Insured Key is broken/broken in a lock by You, the Insurer will cover You up to £50 per claim in respect of the cost of a Replacement Key and Locksmith Charges.
=	Fraud	For clarity purposes, the format and wording of the ‘Fraud’ section has been updated. This section now reads as follows: If we discover that You, anybody insured by this Policy or anyone acting for You has knowingly: • Made a fraudulent or false claim in full or in part or exaggerated the amount of the claim; • Misrepresented any answers to our questions or withheld any relevant information in order to influence us to accept a claim or Policy; • Provided false or invalid documents in support of a claim; • Made a fraudulent or false application. We will • Investigate the claim and/or Policy, and this could result in legal action by us. We may • Refuse to pay the whole of Your claim if any part is in any way fraudulent, false or exaggerated and recover from You any costs that we have incurred;

Change type	Keycare Policy booklet section	Changes
		• Treat Your Policy as if it never existed from the date of the fraud or misrepresentation and retain any premium You have paid for the Policy or • Serve You with a 7-day notice of cancellation; and • Serve You with a 7-day notice of cancellation on all other policies that You hold with us; and Pass details to the police and share information about Your behaviour with other organisations to prevent further fraud.
=	Other Conditions – How we handle Your data	Keycare cover is now underwritten by AA Underwriting Insurance Company Limited and the ‘How we handle your data’ section has been updated to include details of how you can access the underwriter’s privacy policy. It now reads as follows: 12. HOW WE HANDLE YOUR DATA For information on how Keycare handle Your data please refer to the separate Privacy Policy issued with Your Policy documents. The latest version of our Privacy Policy is also available to view and download on our website – www.keycare.co.uk. AA Underwriting Insurance Company Limited, who underwrite this product, may collect and use your data to service this policy.
